HumasUPNVJ - In order to increase knowledge about the capital market for UPN "Veteran" Jakarta students, the Financial Services Authority (OJK) held a public lecture on the Capital Market which was held in the UPNVJ Faculty of Economics and Business classrooms, on Tuesday (06/11/18).

In his speech, Drs. Nobelson, MM as Deputy Dean of FEB for student affairs and cooperation said "Thank you to the OJK who is here to increase knowledge, especially regarding the capital market, we really support everything in the academic field and today we will get enlightenment on the importance of OJK and know more about OJK is also the capital market," he said.

This public lecture was attended by 78 participants who were representatives of study programs at FEB with speakers Ir. Hoesen, MM Chief Executive of OJK Capital Market Supervision.

In delivering lectures, Hoesen generally said that the Capital Market is the main alternative for companies that need funding, especially for the long term, so that it is more in line with the needs for business development.

Not only that, FEB student Wahyu who is also a member of the UPNVJ Capital Market Study Group said "The main target of this activity is to carry out collaboration between FEB UPNVJ and OJK and add to relations. Apart from that, OJK also provides workshops for students so they can better understand the capital market," Wahyu said when interviewed.
