

UPNVJ Medical Faculty Clinical Skills Instructor Training

Wednesday, 29 January 2020 16:55 WIB

HumasUPNVJ - In an effort to improve clinical skills for lecturers, the UPN Veterans Jakarta Faculty of Medicine held a Clinical Skills Instructor Training which took place at the UPNVJ FK Auditorium Lt. 4 Gd. Cipto Mangunkusumo (29/20).

dr. Tiwuk as the chief executive explained that this training was a routine activity for refreshing for the instructors, "We are holding this training as a form of refreshing to refresh the abilities of the instructors before the block starts on the 3rd of February. The goal is that the ability of FK lecturers to train students when they are in the lab will increase and become more qualified." Obviously

dr. Niniek as the Head of the UPNVJ Study Program when giving the opening remarks, "This skills training activity is expected to be the same as one another. This training is to be able to equalize perceptions for all lecturers / instructors, hopefully the theory and practice learned can be applied properly later. he said

One of the speakers, dr. Wendy explained about Dermatology Physical Examination and Dermatology History. This activity lasted for two days and was attended by 35 participants including UPNVJ FK lecturers.
