

Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs: "The Influence of the Digital Era is Increasing, Learning Videos Become Important"

Monday, 19 July 2021 15:47 WIB

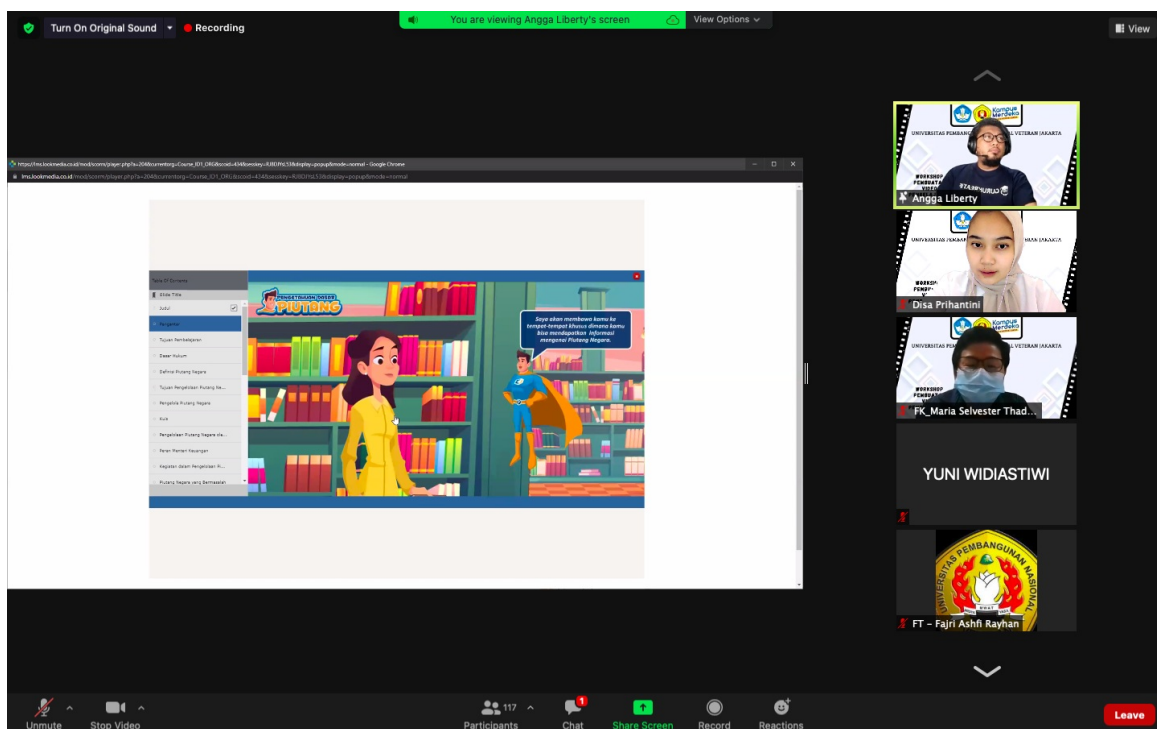

HumasUPNVJ - Talking about learning videos, it is necessary to know the meaning first; which is a media that has been systematically designed while still being guided by the applicable curriculum so that the existing program will allow students to examine lecture material more easily and of course interesting. Discussing this, Antar Venus as the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs when giving remarks as well as directions to the participants of the Learning Video Workshop which was held online via the zoom platform this morning explained several things related to the goals to be achieved after this workshop was held. (Monday, 19/7)

"In accordance with the existing demands, we are currently holding a workshop which is of course very useful for the UPNVJ lecturers who are present. In principle, in today's digital era which is very broad, one of the learning resources we mean is by having "Learning Videos" later so that we can provide the latest and most updated information to our students and also everything will remain integrated. with LEADS. In this learning video, it will not be played during lecture hours and may be from a different lecturer. he was quick

"What we need to build now is our skills as lecturers must give the best to students. Therefore, this activity was held as a reference to the ladies and gentlemen of the participants who attended." he continued

Antar Venus hopes that the output of this workshop can produce interactive and interesting learning videos for UPNVJ students, not boring learning videos.
