However, with a lot of time, energy and even money that I have spent, there are many experiences and lessons that can be taken and be grateful for. One of them is, to make the most of my time. My hopes are very much, one of which is that I hope I can continue to do positive, innovative activities and creative for teenagers especially those who can spread the benefits of goodness. Most importantly, I hope, that I can realize the main task of being a GenRe Ambassador, which is to be an inspiration for teenagers and the whole community to be able to avoid risky sexual behavior, early marriage and drug abuse.
