HumasUPNVJ - The Jakarta Veterans National Development University is again holding a vaccination program in collaboration with various parties, including Polda Metro Jaya, Indonesian Student Regiment Alumni Association (IARMI) DKI Jakarta, Jayakarta Student Regiment (Menwa) and the Deposit Insurance Agency (LPS). This vaccination will be held on Saturday, August 28, 2021 at Campus 1, UPN Pondok Labu.

Even though it has held several vaccination programs, UPNVJ is still preparing for a thorough preparation, this was conveyed by dr. Ria Maria as Deputy Chancellor for Student Affairs and Cooperation, "We at UPNVJ have prepared this activity very seriously so that the implementation runs smoothly. Today's vaccination program, there are two doses of vaccine, namely Astrazeneca for the first vaccine administration and Sinovac for the second dose administration from last July 30, with a total of approximately two thousand doses of vaccines. Therefore, our preparations must be very serious, starting from the flow of entry, checking temperatures, filling in data, screening patients, vaccinations to observation after the vaccine," explained dr. Ria

"Alhamdulillah, the success of this vaccination program is inseparable from the support of the many parties who participated, because we know UPNVJ cannot do it alone without the help of many parties, we thank all those who support it, Polda Metro Jaya, Indonesian Student Regiment Alumni Association (IARMI) DKI

Jakarta, Student Regiment (Menwa) Jayakarta and Deposit Insurance Corporation (LPS). Hopefully this collaboration will always be warmly intertwined. Close it

dr. Ibnu as the coordinator of the UPNVJ health team also explained that the vaccination process this time had significant differences such as more health workers were assigned than the previous vaccination activities and of course the medical facilities that UPNVJ had prepared were also complete.

In this activity, the Deputy Governor of DKI Jakarta, Ir. H. Ahmad Riza Patria, MBA Deputy Governor of DKI Jakarta also took the time to tour the vaccination process at UPNVJ, Ahmad Riza gave his appreciation to UPNVJ as a State Defense Campus for successfully holding a vaccination center on campus, "Thank you to UPNVJ and those who have worked together to succeed and assist the government's program, namely the national vaccination program, to solve this pandemic problem. We must be grateful, DKI Jakarta has reached 9,554,000 of the target of 11,000,000 vaccine doses. For this reason, we urge all DKI Jakarta residents to vaccinate immediately. For this reason, I appreciate the UPNVJ campus and those affiliated with it who have held a vaccination center with a total of two thousand doses. Alhamdulillah this is a pretty big achievement. Hopefully UPNVJ will be more successful, creating alumni who excel for Indonesia and the nation," he said to the UPNVJ Public Relations team. Meanwhile, the Director of Community Development for Polda Metro Jaya, Senior Commissioner of Police and Pondok Labu Urban Village Head, also reviewed the vaccination activities at UPNVJ.
