HumasUPNVJ - Many things have changed during a pandemic like this, as a student this is both a challenge and an opportunity. The Creative Collaborative Ethics Learning Stimulation Program (PROSPEKTIV) is here to strengthen character for all students, especially new students at the Jakarta Veterans National Development University so that they can have the character of defending the country, with integrity, discipline, honesty, being able to adapt quickly and ethically.

The first Prospective 2021 series was held virtually which presented outstanding students who won the MIT Covid-19 Challenge: Latin America VS Covid and won a student exchange scholarship to Leiden University in the Netherlands, Adriana Viola Miranda S.Ked who discussed; " Be Proactive ( Be Proactive: Principles of Personal Choice ) " . In the material she explained, Adriana discussed a lot about how a person can always self-reflect and focus on the goals they have. Adriana also gave tips and tricks to succeed in achieving the goals you want to achieve, "The very first thing we have to do is set goals and opportunities that exist, especially now that we are still in a pandemic period, starting with what we can do according to our capacity. ourselves, after that we have to look for existing information from various sources and then dare to try because only one step can change everything, besides that we must have the courage to fail because failure is only a perspective and the last thing is to have the courage to act," he said.

The material presented by Adriana caught the attention of the 3636 participants who attended last Saturday, September 4, 2021. The participants looked enthusiastic as seen from the many questions asked in the discussion session. Disa Prihantini as the host and moderator gave a conclusion of the material given by Adriana Viola Miranda, "Being a student is a phase where we must be filled with exploration, everything starts with a goal but from the goals we have taken we must fill them with a mature strategy.
