

UPNVJ Holds Debriefing for University PKM Reviewers

Thursday, 21 October 2021 09:31 WIB

HumasUPNVJ - As is well known, the Student Creativity Program (PKM) is an activity to improve the quality of students (students) in tertiary institutions so that later they can become members of society who have academic abilities and professional abilities who can develop, apply and disseminate knowledge that students/ i already got. In supporting PKM activities at UPNVJ, UPNVJ invited Wachyu Hari Haji as a resource person to provide in-depth understanding to university reviewers . This activity was held offline in the Nusantara 1 meeting room which was attended by the Chancellor, Deputy Chancellor for Student Affairs and Cooperation, Head of the Academic Bureau of Student Affairs Planning and Cooperation, Deputy Deans for third fields, lecturer representatives, and Head of UPT PKK, while still adhering to the health protocol . (18/10)

The Chancellor in his remarks stated that an efficient strategy was needed in this PKM, "In this activity an efficient strategy needs to be carried out, because basically every PKM scheme must have a strategy. Define the strategy first before asking students to make a proposal.

Wahcyu Hari Haji explained that it is not necessary for many to register for PKM activities, but all those who register for PKM must be able to pass and understand what they are doing.

The results of this activity are expected so that the deputy field three can prepare ten students to submit PKM - All PKM submissions from UPNVJ passed and more than the previous year (16 participants).
