HumasUPNVJ - Global Millennial MUN 12.0 is a Model United Nation organized by the Global Millennial Group. MUN is a competition which is a simulation of the UN assembly. All participants will play the role of diplomats from a country and will discuss and find solutions to international issues in the fields of economy, security, human rights and others. The participants who took part in GM 12.01 were joined by two countries, namely Malaysia and Indonesia, totaling 32 contestants which were held online because they were still in an atmosphere of covid - 19 for 2 days 27-28 Nov 2021.

At GM MUN 12.0, one of the UPN Veterans Jakarta Faculty of Law students class of 2019, Mouva Putri Ramadhita represented UPNVJ as a Bangladesh delegation at UNHRC (HAM) and managed to get the opportunity to win the Most Outstanding Delegate and Best Position Paper award discussing 'Guaranteeing The Minorities Basic Rights'.

In his written interview with the PR team, Mouva explained the process up until the ups and downs in participating in this competition, "This MUN made me learn how to be a diplomat who can represent his country well and always uphold professionalism even when debating. With this MUN I can also improve my skills in public speaking and also in English. Apart from that, I also got friends from various countries," explained Mouva

"My preparation to take part in GM MUN 12.0 is to make papers and research from dozens of foreign articles, make research that contains speeches that I will conduct as well as the results of my research on topics related to human rights for minorities," he said

Mouva also shared about the ups and downs she went through in this activity, "I like being able to meet new friends, I can also know more about many things such as new issues, for grief maybe it's more time that I have. I have to manage extra time from my other activities. Apart from that, because this is in the form of a full day conference , it is quite tiring," said Mouva further

Mouva has hopes to become an awardee at London International MUN and also Harvard MUN.
