HumasUPNVJ - UPN Veteran Jakarta is again holding the Stimulation Program for Creative Collaborative Ethics Learning (PROSPEKTIV) sixth series (6/11). The sixth Prospective 2021 series is still being held virtually and carries the theme " Creativity Problem Solving for Decision Making " by presenting Martha Simanjuntak, SE, MM, who is an educator, speaker, researcher, consultant, coach, and entrepreneur.

The activity began with remarks by the Dean of the Faculty of Computer Science, Dr. Ermatita, M.Kom, "This activity is a routine university activity with the aim of increasing student knowledge, shaping student character, increasing innovation in learning and the spirit of defending the country and all of this is really needed in this era," she said

"In order to fulfill these objectives, we hope that this activity can really be followed by new students. As a state defense campus, of course we must have a spirit of defending the country that is much stronger than others, by having attitudes that put forward the norms of life that are based on our ideology, namely Pancasila, "continued Ermatita

In her presentation, Martha Simanjuntak explained several points, "There are several things that need to be known, including: Creative problem solving is a way of thinking and behaving creatively to deal with problems or situations that occur, design thinking process: one of the processes that must be done so that later you can produce appropriate needs, thinking strategy: stages that aim to think ahead and respond quickly to trends , learning journey : stages that must be passed so that it goes well," he explained
