HumasUPNVJ - As many as 10 UPNVJ Jakarta (UPNVJ) Candidates for Civil Servants (PNS) were inaugurated and sworn in as Civil Servants (PNS) directly by the Chancellor of UPNVJ at the Bhinneka Tunggal Ika Auditorium, on Wednesday (02/03/22).

The inauguration was also attended by deans of faculties and heads of institutions with technical implementation carried out online and offline using strict health protocols.

"Don't forget that lecturers are also UPNVJ employees, so don't forget to keep prioritizing the tridharma of higher education. When you become a civil servant, you must show the correct results from the testing phase that has been passed before. " said the chancellor Dr. Erna Hernawati, Ak, CPMA, CA, CGOP in her speech.

"I entrust it to the faculty leadership to continue to monitor the work of civil servants so that they continue to have good performance. Please be creative for UPNVJ, always think about UPNVJ to make improvements to our institution," he added.

Chairun Nisa Zempi, S.Ikom, MA, a civil servant who has been appointed, expressed his gratitude after waiting so long for the day of his inauguration. He said this was the start for there would be many challenges that had to be done for mutual progress.

"In the future there will be many challenges, this is the start of a new journey. As a lecturer, I will definitely prioritize the tridharma of higher education, but according to the rector's mandate, I will also contribute to various activities at UPNVJ which will ultimately improve the quality of UPNVJ," said Chairun Nisa.
