HumasUPNVJ - Jakarta Veterans National Development University (UPNVJ) again accepted 482 new student candidates who were declared to have passed through the 2nd batch of Independent Selection (SEMA) for Bachelor Program which was announced on Wednesday (21/7/2022) at 15.00 WIB.

"Welcome to the prospective students who are accepted through 2nd batch of SEMA S-1. UPNVJ is committed to providing services to all students to learn and achieve achievements," said Vice Rector for Academic Affairs, Dr. Anter Venus, MA.Comm through a written message broadcast from Jakarta, Wednesday (21/7/2022).

Venus, who is the Chairman of the UPNVJ New Student Admissions Committee, said that the competition in 2nd batch of SEMA S-1 is still very tight. The registrants for 2nd batch of SEMA S-1 reached 4,801 people. The Medicine Study Program and the Communication Science Study Program are still the favorite study programs because they have the most demand.

The study programs in the fields of science and technology that are most in demand are Medicine (964 applicants), Public Health (672 applicants), and Information Systems (591 applicants). While the study programs in the social and humanities fields that are most in demand are Communication Studies (803 enthusiasts), Management (601 enthusiasts), and Law (591 applicants).

"2nd batch of SEMA S-1 is the last opportunity for prospective students to be able to enter the S-1 undergraduate program. Currently, what is still open is 2nd batch of SEMA D-3 which will be closed on Sunday (24/7/2022)," explained Venus.

Previously, UPNVJ had accepted new student candidates who were declared to have passed the National Selection for State Higher Education (SNMPTN), Computer-Based Writing Examination for Joint Selection for State University Admission (UTBK-SBMPTN), and 1st batch of SEMA S-1.
