HumasUPNVJ - In order to meet the national standards of higher education consistently and continuously and improve the quality of education implementation within the UPN Veteran Jakarta environment, the UPNVJ Learning Development and Quality Assurance Institute held a Workshop on Monitoring and Evaluation of Graduate Learning Achievements and Course Learning Achievements which were held face-to-face in Lt. 4 Bhinneka Tunggal Ika UPNVJ Auditorium (6/10) while continuing to implement the Covid-19 health protocol.

LP3M UPNVJ presents the Secretary of the Quality Assurance and Development Institute (LMPP) Hasanuddin University Makassar, Rini Rachmawaty, S.Kep, Ns, MN, PhD as moderator. Rini Rachmawaty presented two materials that discussed Curriculum Review and Learning Tools (OBE-Based RPS) and Implementation of CMPK & CPL Achievement Monitoring and Evaluation Model according to Study Program Graduate Profiles.

At the start of the event, Dr. Ni Putu Eka, as the secretary representing the Head of LP3M UPNVJ delivered her remarks, "We are here struggling to achieve international accreditation, more or less like Hasanuddin University. Unhas has approximately 53 study programs that are internationally accredited. We also want to follow in Unhas' footsteps, so we need a lot of direction and assistance from the Unhas Quality Assurance and Educational Development Institute (LPMPP). We will also choose study programs so that we can improve their accreditation. In this agenda, discussions from ladies and gentlemen of all workshop participants are needed. Hopefully with this workshop, we will be able to achieve output in accordance with UPNVJ's wishes and needs," said Ni Putu Eka

The LP3M Workshop activity also presented Deputy Deans, Heads of Study Programs, Heads of Departments and Lecturer representatives from each faculty within UPNVJ, totaling approximately 50 participants.
