HumasUPNVJ - The SNPMB-BP3 Committee has announced the results of the 2023 UTBK-SNBT on Tuesday, June 20, 2023. In the announcement, UPNVJ showed its achievements by being in 17th place out of 20 State Universities (PTN) with the most number of registrants throughout Indonesia. The total number of applicants who registered with UPNVJ reached an extraordinary number, namely 32,858 applicants.

One of the achievements that stands out is the Communication Studies Program at UPNVJ. This study program made it into the 20 most popular study programs in Indonesia, ranked 6th with a total of 3,728 applicants. This shows a high interest in the Communication Studies program at UPNVJ.

This statement was conveyed by the General Chairperson of the SNPMB 2023 Responsible Team Prof Dr Ir Mochamad Ashari MEng IPU AEng. Ashari expressed his appreciation to all applicants and expressed his pride in the results of the 2023 UTBK-SNBT which showed high interest in Higher Education in Indonesia.

In addition, UPNVJ also made it into the top 10 PTNs with the highest average score throughout Indonesia. The average grade received at UPNVJ is 62,252. This shows the quality of prospective students who register with UPNVJ in facing the selection exam.

Another achievement, the Bachelor of Medicine Study Program at UPNVJ also recorded impressive results by entering the top 10 student admissions positions with the highest UTBK scores. In this study program, the highest UTBK score received was 811.81.

To all prospective students accepted at UPNVJ, congratulations on this extraordinary achievement. However, for those who have not been accepted, keep your spirits up because there is still an opportunity to try the independent selection process (SEMA). UPNVJ appreciates all prospective students and hopes that their enthusiasm will not fade in pursuing higher education dreams.

With these achievements, UPNVJ continues to be committed to providing quality education and supporting the academic and professional development of prospective students.
