

FEB Introduces Sharia Online Business with SHARE'I SEMINAR 2018

Tuesday, 24 April 2018 16:25 WIB

Jakarta – UPNVJ's Faculty of Economics & Business (FEB) held a seminar which is one of FEB's Rohis Al-Jihad work programs. The seminar this time raised the theme "Sharia Online Business " which was held at the Bhinneka Tunggal Ika Auditorium Lt. 4 General Soedirman Building, Tuesday (24/04/18).

"Sharia Online Business" was appointed as the theme of this seminar with the hope that it will give birth to reliable business people in the future. In the 2018 SHARE'I Seminar Krisno Septyan, SE, MSAk., SAS was present as the moderator, with speakers Muhammad Abdul Wahab, Lc from Member of the Teaching and Writing Team of the Indonesian Fiqh House and M. Maula Nurudin Alhaq, S.ST who is the Owner of Afra Kids.

The 2018 SHARE'I Seminar which was carried out by Rohis Al-Jihad FEB was attended by 227 participants including leaders, academics and students. This seminar also aims to foster interest in FEB students in studying and exploring the field of online business and to make "SHARE'I" a means of introducing sharia business more deeply and broadly as well as becoming a forum for information in the field of business according to Islamic sharia.

Apart from giving material and questions and answers from the participants, this seminar also held door prizes with attractive prizes for the participants who attended this seminar. The event ended with entertainment from Avio Capella.

