Public Relations UPNVJ - 1-3 December 2023, LP3M UPNVJ held an International Design Thinking Certification for Educators event at Aston Priority Simatupang Hotels. Participants in this event consisted of University and Faculty Leaders as well as Lecturers to explore the concept of Design Thinking in the world of education.

Dr. Michael Lewrick, a Design Thinking expert from Switzerland who is also an International Bestselling Author and Design Thinking Thought Leader who has provided his experience in developing the Design Thinking concept globally.

This event was opened with remarks from the Chancellor of UPNVJ, Dr. Drs. Anter Venus, MA.Comm, who expressed his appreciation for LP3M's initiative in holding this international certification.

Continuing material from Dr. Michael Lewrick about the concept of Design Thinking and its application in the world of education. Dr. Lewrick not only enriches participants' theoretical knowledge, but also provides practical insights from his extensive experience. This event is an important step in empowering UPNVJ educators with innovative methods to improve the quality of learning.

The active participation of participants also confirms the university's commitment to fostering a culture of sustainable learning and innovation. The International Design Thinking Certification for Educators is clear evidence of UPNVJ's dedication to remaining at the forefront of educational development.

It is hoped that the Design Thinking concept can be implemented in the learning process to strengthen competencies in the fields of science studied by students, and for leaders, it is hoped that the design thinking concept can support the implementation of tasks by understanding the needs of the stakeholders in their respective units.
