The Moot Court Team for Law Faculty Students at the National Development University "Veteran" Jakarta won 2nd place in the Anti Money Laundering National Moot Court Competition which was held on 10 - 12 October 2014 at Trisakti University, Jakarta.

In this competition the UPNVJ FH Team managed to occupy the runner-up position, one level below the Diponegoro University Semarang Student Team which won first place with a very thin score and one level above the University of Muhammadiyah Malang which won third place.

This achievement makes UPNVJ academics in general and the Faculty of Law particularly proud. Dean of the Faculty of Law UPNVJ Drs. Djamhari Hamza, SH, MH, MM said that this kind of achievement must become a tradition that must be maintained to demonstrate the existence and quality of the UPNVJ Faculty of Law on the national stage. At this time the UPNVJ FH Student Moot Court team is preparing to participate in the International Law Moot Court Competition held by the Indonesian Society of International Law (ISIL).
