Tuesday, 24 July 2018 14:01 WIB

HumasUPNVJ - Institute for Research and Community Service (LP2M) UPN "Veteran" Jakarta is carrying out lectures to 40 students and 4 Field Supervisors (DPL) which will be held in Lampung and Lebak Banten. The debriefing event took place at Lt. II Nusantara 1 UPN "Veteran" Jakarta campus rectorate, on Friday (20/07/18)

Head of LP2M UPN "Veteran" Jakarta Dr. Retno Dyah Kusumastuti in her speech conveyed the message that the Community Service Program (KKN) is a program from the government, namely building suburban areas, especially in villages and she also hopes that the KKN participants are expected to be able to maintain the good name of the campus alma mater.

The material for KKN training was provided by Abrahan Raubun, B.Sc, S.Ikom who has been involved a lot in providing supplies to students participating in KKN.

The Real Work Lecture (KKN) this time was divided into two groups, the first group in the Lampung area consisted of 10 students and 1 DPL and the second group consisted of 30 students in Lebak Banten with 3 DPLs.
