HumasUPNVJ - April 28, 2025 - PT PLN (Persero) shows its commitment to supporting the world of education by collaborating in the implementation of the 2025 National Selection Based on Test Computer-Based Written Examination (UTBK-SNBT) at the UTBK center of the National Development University "Veteran" Jakarta (UPNVJ).

This collaboration is part of PLN's efforts to ensure the smooth running of the national selection process for entering state universities by guaranteeing a reliable and stable electricity supply during the UTBK which will take place from April to May 2025.

PLN technicians in the Ciputat area of the Cinere post, Surasa and Tatang Hermawan, said that PLN had taken anticipatory steps long before the 2025 UTBK-SNBT took place, "We have put a team of technical officers on standby in the field, conducted network inspections, and provided backup generators around the UTBK-SNBT implementation location at UPNVJ. This is all to support the smooth running of the exam and provide comfort for participants," said Surasa on behalf of his team to UPNVJ Public Relations. (28/4)

"Before the UTBK-SNBT took place, we and the team also cleaned the panels between buildings in the UPNVJ environment. We hope that the collaboration between PLN and UPNVJ will be able to smooth and make the UTBK-SNBT process at UPNVJ a success," he continued.

UTBK-SNBT 2025 at UPNVJ was attended by thousands of participants from various regions. With the active role of PLN, the implementation of the exam went without any significant technical obstacles, especially related to the electricity supply.

PLN's move is in line with the company's vision as a reliable electricity service provider and its support for the advancement of national education. In addition to technical provision, PLN also opens up space for sustainable collaboration with campuses in the fields of renewable energy and energy efficiency.
