In her speech, Prof. Venus expressed her appreciation for the dedication and achievements of the UPNVJ Faculty of Law over the past 25 years. She emphasized that the Dies Natalis celebration is not only a moment of celebration, but also a reflection and evaluation of the faculty's contribution to the development of law and education in Indonesia.

"FH UPNVJ has become an important pillar in producing graduates who are not only intellectually intelligent, but also have high integrity. I hope this faculty continues to grow into a center of excellence in the field of law," said Venus.

Currently, the Faculty of Law UPNVJ has four study programs. These four study programs show that the Faculty of Law has developed into a comprehensive legal higher education institution, capable of organizing education from undergraduate to doctoral levels.

This is proof that the UPNVJ Faculty of Law not only answers the needs of today's legal education, but is also ready to produce future legal leaders and thinkers who are visionary, critical, and provide solutions.

Prof. Venus gave high appreciation to the series of activities for the 25th Anniversary. Activities such as book reviews, community service based on the pentahelix approach, and various competitions for students, he said, not only added to the excitement of the celebration, but also strengthened the role of the Faculty of Law in creating a dynamic, inclusive, and beneficial academic space for the wider community.

The celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the Faculty of Law UPNVJ was also enlivened by a series of scientific and social activities, such as a national legal seminar, a constitutional debate competition between students, an exhibition of scientific works, and other useful activities.
