UPNVJ Public Relations - The Dharma Wanita Persatuan (DWP) Technical Implementation Unit (UPT) of the Jakarta Veteran National Development University (UPNVJ) was officially inaugurated as the new management on Wednesday (August 20, 2025). The inauguration took place in a hybrid format at the Bhinneka Tunggal Ika Auditorium on the UPNVJ campus, under the auspices of the DWP of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Research, and Technology (Kemendikbudristek) through the Directorate General of Higher Education, Research, and Technology.

This inauguration aims to strengthen women's organizations that support their husbands' roles as civil servants (ASN) in higher education. The event was led by Levy Olivia Nur Brian Yulianto, Chairperson of the DWP Kemendiktisaintek, and witnessed by central administrators and DWP representatives from various units across Indonesia, both in person and online.

In her remarks, Levy expressed her appreciation for the DWP members' commitment to strengthening the organization's role. "Dharma Wanita is not only a forum for fostering camaraderie, but also a strategic tool for improving the quality of civil servant families and supporting the achievement of government programs, particularly in education and research," she said.

Meanwhile, the elected Chair of the UPNVJ DWP, Rena Nantia Venus, expressed her commitment to making the organization a driving force for social activities, education, and women's empowerment. "I hope that our existence can fulfill the role of Dharma Wanita itself. I hope that all of us, members and administrators, can always actively align with the main goal, which is to improve the capacity of the wives of civil servants within the UPNVJ environment. In addition, the UPNVJ DWP can play an active role in synergy, dividing tasks, and taking the time to socialize and share knowledge," said Rena in an interview.

DWP, an organization for civil servant wives founded in 1974, consistently supports government programs through social activities and family empowerment. Through this inauguration, it is hoped that the DWP UPNVJ management will carry out its mandate with a spirit of togetherness, thereby increasing the organization's activity, providing solutions, and contributing to the community.
