Public Relations of UPNVJ - The Ratu Shima Team of the Faculty of Law of the National Development University (UPN) Veteran Jakarta won 1st Place in the Scientific Writing Competition (LKTI) at the UIN Law Fair VIII 2025 at UIN Syarif Hidayatullah Jakarta. The competition, which began in July and ended on September 28, 2025, carried the theme "Constitutional Dialectics as an Effort to Retain the Public in Facing the Dynamics of State Administration to Realize Legal Inclusivity," organized by the Student Association of the Legal Studies Program, Faculty of Sharia and Law, UIN Jakarta.

The team, guided by lecturer Ali Imran Nasution, SH, MH, a constitutional law expert from the Faculty of Law, UPNVJ, compiled their work until the submission deadline of August 29, 2025. This event honed students' legal reasoning and writing skills, encouraging the study of constitutional issues and the rule of law through discussions between participants.

The competition's theme is to spark reflective dialogue to build constitutional awareness, voice criticism, and offer solutions for legal reform. This initiative aligns with the vision of Golden Indonesia 2045, where internalizing constitutional values is key to the rule of law and inclusivity.
