UPNVJ Public Relations - Veteran National Development University Jakarta (UPNVJ) developed a Strategic Plan for its Disability Services Unit (ULD) at RA Suites Simatupang, South Jakarta, on Friday (October 31, 2025). The full-day event involved the ULD team, campus leaders, and the rector to support inclusive education.

Led by Chairun Nisa Zempi, SIKom., MA, the ULD team was accompanied by the Head of the Learning Center Dr. Arief Wahyudi J, M.Kep., M.Pd.Ked., and the Head of LPMPP Satria Yudhia Wijaya, SE., MS., Ak. Rector Prof. Dr. Anter Venus, MA, Comm, provided direction for adaptive and sustainable documents.

Satria Yudhia Wijaya emphasized that the strategic plan must guide policies, services, and infrastructure for students with disabilities. "This document provides clear direction for the development of ULD," he said.

Rector Anter Venus expressed her appreciation for the team's contributions. She emphasized UPNVJ's full commitment through policies and human resources. "UPNVJ must be comfortable for all students, including those with disabilities, to learn and excel," she said.

This activity affirms UPNVJ's focus on equal access to quality education. ULD focuses on responsive services for students with disabilities, in line with its national defense campus identity.

The ULD Strategic Plan strengthens UPNVJ as an inclusive campus that prioritizes academic excellence and humanitarian values. Its implementation is expected to sustainably improve access and achievement for students with disabilities.
