

UPNVJ Explores Educational Cooperation Opportunities with Sudan Through Diplomatic Visits

Tuesday, 04 November 2025 18:07 WIB

UPNVJ Public Relations - Veteran National Development University Jakarta (UPNVJ) hosted Anwar Hassan Ali Fadlalla, Counselor (Deputy Head of Mission) for the Republic of Sudan, through the Office of International Affairs (KUI). This meeting opened up opportunities for strategic collaboration in education, such as student exchanges and scholarship programs. This visit marked the first step in strengthening academic relations between Indonesia and Sudan.

The Head of the UPNVJ Office of Student Affairs, Dr. Bambang Susanto, MA, warmly welcomed the guests. The discussion focused on the potential of short course programs, scholarships, and Cultural exchange. Anwar Hassan emphasized the benefits for students from both countries, such as cross-cultural mobility that enriches knowledge.

UPNVJ expressed its readiness to expand its global network. "This visit paves the way for student and lecturer mobility, as well as intercultural understanding," said Dr. Bambang. Anwar Hassan welcomed the visit, stating that Sudan is ready to build a bridge of knowledge that will benefit both nations.

The meeting concluded with a group photo. The UPNVJ Office of the Office of the UI (Office of the UI) welcomed the opportunity for collaboration and hoped that this plan could be realized soon, thus strengthening the university's position in the international education arena.
