UPNVJ Public Relations — The Mosque Prosperity Council (DKM) of the Veteran National Development University (UPNVJ) Jakarta held a joint iftar program for students and educational staff during Ramadan 1447 Hijri. This program was centered at the Manbaul 'Ulum Mosque and Al Fikri Mosque as part of strengthening togetherness and religious outreach on campus. The activity lasted for 15 days, involving faculty and work units in rotation. In addition to the iftar (breaking of fast), the DKM also held religious studies, congregational tarawih prayers, and a sermon after the midday prayer.

The Head of the UPNVJ Student Council, Suprima, M.Pd.I., explained that the iftar provided ta'jil (breakfasting meal) and food for approximately 100 worshippers at the Manbaul 'Ulum Mosque on the Pondok Labu Campus and 50 worshippers at the Al Fikri Mosque on the Limo Campus. The event targeted students, lecturers, educational staff, and the surrounding community.

"We implemented this program to foster a sense of family and warmth during the fast, especially on the UPNVJ campus. Ramadan is a time to strengthen relationships and strengthen the values of togetherness," said Suprima.

On Monday, February 23, 2026, the Faculty of Medicine took part in the joint iftar program. The alternating involvement of faculties and work units is expected to encourage active participation and a spirit of mutual cooperation among elements of the academic community.

The schedule for iftar has been set as follows: Thursday, February 19, 2026 Faculty of Law; Friday, February 20, 2026 Faculty of Computer Science; Monday, February 23, 2026 Faculty of Medicine; Tuesday, February 24, 2026 Faculty of Social and Political Sciences; Wednesday, February 25, 2026 Faculty of Economics and Business; Thursday, February 26, 2026 Faculty of Health Sciences; Friday, February 27, 2026 Faculty of Engineering; Monday, March 2, 2026 Bureau of Planning, Finance, and General Affairs; Tuesday, March 3, 2026 Bureau of Academic, Student Affairs, and Cooperation; Wednesday, March 4, 2026 Institute for Quality Assurance and Learning Development; Thursday, March 5, 2026 Institute for Research and Community Service; Friday, March 6, 2026 UPT; Monday, March 9, 2026 Rector; Tuesday, March 10, 2026 Vice Rector; and Wednesday, March 11, 2026 DKM together with Student Activity Units.

Through this Ramadhan 1447 H program, Suprima explained that this structured and participatory religious activity is expected to become a space for reflection, social solidarity, and strengthening of collective integrity within the campus environment.
