UPNVJ Public Relations – The Undergraduate Law Program, Faculty of Law, UPN "Veteran" Jakarta (UPNVJ), continues to demonstrate its commitment to providing quality legal education that is relevant to current developments. This was conveyed by the Law Program Coordinator, Dr. Muthia Sakti, SH, MH, who explained the program's various advantages.

According to Muthia, the UPNVJ Law Study Program has several advantages that make it the right choice for prospective students wishing to pursue a legal education. In addition to being located in Jakarta, the center of national government and legal activities, the study program has also achieved Superior accreditation from BAN-PT and international accreditation from FIBAA Germany.

"The advantages of the Undergraduate Law Study Program are not only its location in Jakarta, but also its excellent accreditation by BAN-PT and international accreditation by FIBAA Germany. Furthermore, we excel in utilizing information technology, which we integrate into the legal field," explained Muthia.

The integration of information technology into legal education is one of the study programs' efforts to adapt to the digital era. Through this approach, students not only understand the theoretical aspects of law but also are able to apply technology to modern legal practice and analysis.

Furthermore, Muthia stated that UPNVJ graduates have extensive career opportunities. Alumni can pursue careers in various fields, both in the government and private sectors.

"The career prospects for Law Faculty graduates are very diverse. Many alumni pursue careers as advocates or in law enforcement agencies. Some also become judges at the Supreme Court, prosecutors, and work in the private sector, such as banking and state-owned enterprises," he said.

Through various academic excellences and support for student activities, the UPNVJ Law Study Program continues to strive to produce graduates who are competent, professional, and ready to face the challenges of the world of work.

At the end of her presentation, Muthia also invited prospective new students not to hesitate to choose the UPNVJ Law Study Program as a place to pursue higher education.

"To my fellow prospective new students, don't hesitate to choose the Undergraduate Law Study Program at the UPNVJ Faculty of Law. There are many student programs and activities that can support your talent development and help you achieve your goals. Welcome, and see you at UPNVJ," he concluded.
