On this occasion the Dean of FISIP UPNVJ expressed his pride at being able to attend an event that was purely made by students and has been held regularly for four times. He did not forget to welcome the invited guests who had taken the time to stop by at "our residence", I hope that your arrival can become an inspiration for FISIP to be able to inflame the spirit based on National Culture in realizing Love for the Motherland.

We hope that this kind of event will continue every year to explore the creativity of each student in designing an event. As is proud of, if students unite to initiate a plan it can produce positive results in the form of extraordinary ideas accompanied by existing talents so that the final results achieved are of amazing value.
