UPNVJ Public Relations â€” Two participants in the 2026 National Computer-Based Test (UTBK) SNBT (National Computer-Based Test) at the UTBK Center of Veteran National Development University Jakarta (UPNVJ) shared their friendship through TikTok. They are Zahra Thussitah from SMK PGRI 1 Tangerang and Khansa Khalisah from SMA 8 Bekasi. The two participants met in an online group created to discuss the UTBK exam. Since they happened to be in the same exam room, they decided to meet in person.

Initially, they both felt anxious about the exam. However, thanks to their direct meetings, the tense atmosphere became more relaxed. Zahra and Khansa said they felt calmer after being able to encourage each other.

Their preparation for the UTBK was no small feat. For six months to a year, they both attended tutoring sessions and various practice sessions to prepare. Although the exam was nerve-wracking, they felt confident thanks to their thorough preparation.

In a casual interview with the UPNVJ Public Relations team on the tenth day of the UTBK SNBT, Thursday, April 30, 2026, they expressed their relief and optimism. "Although we were nervous, thank God, thorough preparation and having friends from the same frequency made us more prepared," said Khansa. Zahra added, "We hope to be accepted into our favorite universities according to our desired study programs."

Their message to their fellow students was to stay motivated and hope that the UTBK exam at UPNVJ Limo would run smoothly and that all participants would achieve the best possible results. "Keep your spirits up, and good luck to all participants in the 2026 UTBK-SNBT!" they said in unison.
