FOOTBALL STUDENT ACTIVITY UNIT University of Veteran Football Club (UVFC)

HISTORY

Football Club is one of student activity units in UPN "Veteran" Jakarta. It was founded before the 80s and was legalized on February 17th 1980. This student activity unit aims to embrace and unite UPNVJ students through a platform for showcasing their talents and hobbies in sport, specifically football. Besides that, this student activity unit also has specific goals: to nurture leadership spirit in an organization, to have good rhetoric, to learn how a bureaucracy works in student activity units, and to train cohesiveness/teamwork as well as to nurture loyalty and solidarity. In accordance with the goals, Football Club of UPNVJ participates in several competitions, such as the ASMAJA League competition organized by the Jakarta Student Association. Usually this league is held annually and UPNVJ always participated in this league. In addition, Football Club of UPNVJ also often participates in several futsal competitions at both regional and university levels as well as competitions held by other universities.
