

Catholic Student Family

Monday, 18 April 2022 13:50 WIB

The Catholic Student Family of the UPN "Veteran" Jakarta is an organization based on spirituality, specifically Catholic spirituality. CSF was founded on September 8th 1993. Since it was first established, CSF has been a forum for Catholic students to carry out activities, either general activities or Catholic spiritual activities together with fellow Catholic students.

VISION :

To build Catholic Students that manifest their faith in Jesus Christ, build a fellowship, and involved in loving service whether it is with people of the university or people outside of it.

MISSION :

To make catholic students into a better person, especially in faith, fellowship, and love service.
To create an inclusive system inside the organization, where every students know one another and serve with generosity.

OBJECTIVES :

Catholic students grow with knowledge and gratefulness of the Catholic Faith, with proper and decent teachings and traditions.

Catholic students become complete human beings, as in becoming a mature individual, be it in terms of mindset, character, emotions, and humane skills that could support their livelihood.

Catholic students are able to keep their fellowship alive, whether it is among the students, people of the same faith, and the society.

Catholic students are able to grow and develop to become the witnesses of love and witnesses of brotherhood, among students, the community of the faithful and the society.
